Undesirables Warned Out of Texas Town During
March in Daylight

DR. RIDLEY VANISHES

Fails to Show Up for Talks on "Ku-Klux" Scheduled in Southern Cities

BIRMINGHAM, Aug. 20.—Dr. C. A. Ridley, Atlanta, Ga., who has been invited to give a series of lectures on the Ku-Klux Klan here in a theater Friday night, failed to appear. No arrangements were made for his replacement.

PARIS, Texas, Aug. 20.—For some reason as yet unexplained, the Rev. Caleb Ridley, pastor of a church at Atlanta, Ga., who has been invited to give a series of lectures on the Ku-Klux Klan here in a theater Friday night, failed to appear. No arrangements were made for his replacement.

PORT NECHES, Texas, Aug. 20.—Creating a "new world" in alleged gang rule prevailing throughout the state recently, law men, among them some of the most prominent citizens in the vicinity, have today played Port Neches "on the map" and in the meantime have warned out the town.

Five men were warned to leave town by Sunday noon. Several others were notified to be "careful." Feeling over the warnings and other law violations is running high.

Parading the streets here yesterday afternoon, beginning at 5 o'clock, the "committee of 100" denied any connection whatever with the Ku-Klux Klan, the recently organized "Anti-Ku-Klux Klan" or any "law and order league."

All of the members were entirely unmasked. With typewriters, rifles, they went to the homes of the town and to residences and "personally" placed the warnings in the hands of the men whose presence was "not tolerated" after noon Sunday.

Two of the men were service car drivers. They were told to leave because "the people are tired of speeding, reckless driving and other violations of the law."

What punishment will be dealt the men if they fail to heed the warning was not stated in the notices.

Dr. Caleb Ridley, Atlanta minister, would have been lodged in jail for holding an unlawful gathering had he appeared here, according to Justice of Peace Jack Ward. Dr. Ridley, who is touring the state in defense of the Ku-Klux Klan, was due to make a speech here late last night, it was reported.

"If Dr. Ridley had arrived in the city and mounted a platform to speak on the Ku-Klux Klan," said Judge Ward, "he would have been arrested on a warrant issued out of my court. More than one officer told me that he would serve the warrant if issued."

Judge Ward added that if a meeting to organize societies such as the Ku-Klux Klan, or any other unlawful assembly, is held, he will not know what one is.

County Bar to Meet to Get More Court Rooms

A special meeting of all members of the county bar association has been called for next Monday at 9 o'clock in the district court room No. 4, at which time the report of the committee appointed to secure additional court room facilities will be heard. At the meeting it is understood that definite action regarding the securing of more courtroom space will be taken.

Beer Controversy May Halt Solons' Vacation

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The anti-beer bill threatens to disrupt congressional plans for a recess. "Dry" in the house this afternoon served an ultimatum that they would not consent to a recess until the anti-beer bill was passed with the Staley amendment preventing search and seizure in houses by prohibition officers, stricken out.

Jazz Pirates to Boost Woodard in Texas

For N. G. H. San Antonio, bustling city of the south, is to be surprised that there are other cities with just as much music and even more jazz. This information is to be imparted by a party of 40 Texans—members of the Kiwanis club and their wives, which leaves here the night of September 3 for the Texas city to attend the district Kiwanis convention. They expect to put up in the convention and at the same time see that John H. Woodard, past president of the Tulsa club and at present lieutenant governor of the Texas Kiwanis district, is elected district governor.

ATTORNEY URGES COURT CLEAN-UP

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE. upon to say in no uncertain terms that such conduct is an impropriety and inconsistent with the character of the profession. We can not lower the standard of the profession to that of the more business in which the law is practiced, or to that of the automobile business in which the law is practiced.

"And in that case, contracts for fees were disallowed because of the impropriety of the attorneys, in securing the business."

"The books are full of cases where lawyers have been disbarred because they have descended to prostitute their profession by the lure of money."

A "Shyster" as a Model. "In these present cases, it would seem that the ordinary attorney, who is not a shyster, is being held up to the standard of the shyster as a model."

"If these Indians have come to these lawyers of their own volition for advice, and have received the honest advice of the lawyers, and have then brought their suits for the recovery of the property, what ever we may think of the plaintiffs and their attorneys, they are within the law."

"But if the attorneys either themselves, or through their agents, have solicited the business, have come out and urged the bringing of the litigation, upon a percentage basis, then the condition is such that the courts, upon the matter being brought to their attention, should immediately enter an order forbidding these attorneys to proceed in these cases, at any rate, and thereby set aside their contracts for fees."

"And, if persons not engaged in the practice of law, have stirred up the litigation, have come out and urged the bringing of the litigation, upon a percentage basis, then the condition is such that the courts, upon the matter being brought to their attention, should immediately enter an order forbidding these attorneys to proceed in these cases, at any rate, and thereby set aside their contracts for fees."

Buy What You Like

In buying furniture one finds that quality and appearance often mean more than price. Yet the price must be just—a price that allows the seller no profit is not a just price and weakens his power to give service. One buys furniture and not price and terms. Think this over before you buy.

This store welcomes comparison of quality and price with any legitimate dealer. The number of pieces leaving each day proves comparison constantly favors us.

If in the market for furniture, stoves or rugs, make sure to see what we have to offer and get the price. We leave the matter to your own judgment.

KENNEDY HOLDS MYSTERY NOTES

Father of Slain Man Refuses to Part With Son's Letters

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20.—A new mystery angle was given the investigation of the murder of J. D. Kennedy, slain at his Beverly Glen estate two weeks ago, when it was disclosed for the first time today that a number of letters found in Kennedy's safety deposit box have been carefully withheld by Kennedy's parents.

Ken's father, the district attorney of the county, refused to part with the letters, it was stated, as J. D. Kennedy, the slain man's father, maintains they have nothing to do with the case and for that reason would be kept out of the investigation entirely.

Mr. Kennedy was reported to have admitted keeping the letters from the stack of late notes exchanged between his son and Mrs. Madeline Obenchain, indicted with Arthur C. Burch, for the murder of the slain man, after the safety deposit box was opened.

Kennedy's father, it was stated, has nothing to do with the case and for that reason would be kept out of the investigation entirely.

Author of Book on Life in Ozarks Talks Tonight

Mrs. Robert E. Doling, prominent local literary woman by virtue of her authorship of "Brilla," a novel of Ozark life which attracted favorable attention from critics and press upon its publication a number of years ago, is to give the address at the social for Catholics on the lawn of the Knights of Columbus home tonight.

The Tulsa Kiwanis club, which is about three years old, has already won a national reputation for attendance and for energetic support of the cause of the blind. The club is now planning to hold a convention of this civic organization in Tulsa.

There is a change in plans before the time of departure. It is probable the Tulsa delegation will occupy at least one and perhaps two Pullmans. A special train is to carry the Oklahoma and North Texas delegations to San Antonio.
